

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to express my appreciation to my chavrusa of many years, Harav Yosef Goldberg, שליט"א, Rav of Young Israel of Wavecrest and Bayswater, a true Torah scholar for reviewing and editing parts of the manuscript.

I would like to express my hakaras hatov to my typists Rebbitzen Frimmet Unsdorfer תח"י and to Mrs. Sherry Miller תח"י.

A special expression of thanks to Mrs. Tzirel Shaffron תח"י for her typing and editing skills, and more importantly, her conscientiousness, diligence and encouragement in carrying this project to fruition.

A deep expression of appreciation to Rabbi Yitzchok Saftlas for his artistic skills and his wise advice.

Many, many thanks to Yitzchok Turner for his expertise, patience, and good nature, and for being the consummate professional typesetter.

A very hearty yasher koach to Dr. Binyomin Kaplan, the general editor, for his expertise in perfecting this manuscript and for his sagacious advice.

A very special appreciation to my son Eli, a young talmud chochum, for reviewing the manuscript and for his insightful comments.

I would like to thank my father-in-law, Rabbi Dr. Shmelke Rubin שליט"א, an eminent cardiologist as well as a world-class talmud chochum for reviewing the entire manuscript.

No list of acknowledgments would be complete without mention of the self-sacrifice of my dear mother, Mrs. Chaya Adler תח"י, for myself, the mishpachah, and Klal Yisrael. May she be granted length of years and good health in which to enjoy genuine nachas from the entire mishpochah.

During the entire process of producing this sefer I was blessed with the cheerful encouragement, true devotion, and the profound input of my dear eizer kenegdi, Rena תח"י, whose share in this work is beyond measure. She skillfully polished every sentence and thought. Rabbi Akiva's reference to his wife truly applies to her:

שלי ושלכם שלה הוא

My [Torah] and your [Torah] is really her's (Nedarim 50•).
